Surprise Birthday

Today is Mr. Crab's birthday. Layla and Emma want to throw him a surprise birthday party. But Emma has never thrown a birthday party for crabs. Can you help Layla and Emma throw a surprise birthday for Mr. Crabs?

Use these extra pieces – or any others from the book – to finish the story your way!

1 Use the broken egg shell as a birthday crown for Mr. Crab. Give him something sweet to celebrate.

2 Give Emma a camera so she can take a photo of Mr. Crab and all of his friends to keep a memory of the special day.

3 Use the chest to make a secret present for Mr. Crabs. Stuff the chest full of gifts Mr. Crabs might like.

Turtle Dancing

Nya and Zane take the mech into the hills for a mountainside picnic but Cobra Mechanic has plans to kidnap them. Having removed the weapons before heading out – who takes weapons to a picnic?!?!? – can you help our heroes find the ingredients to defeat the sinister serpent?

Use these extra pieces – or any others from the book – to finish the story your way!

1 Jump on the hot dog bun and shoot out the sausage towards the enemy

2 Break off a couple of chicken wings and use them as greasy katanas!

3 Walk nicely up to the Cobra and ask him if he thinks your pie smells weird. When he bends down to smell it, splat him in the face and make a run for it!

Pet Show Power

Zane invites Nya over for dinner but an unexpected guest arrives first – the Ice Zombie Warrior. With Zane frozen to the spot, Nya arrives just in time and jumps into the mech to take on the zombie. Can you help Nya use the mech to defeat her frozen foe?

Use these extra pieces – or any others from the book – to finish the story your way!

1 Holding off the zombie with one arm, use the fire stick to melt Zane free and join in the battle.

2 Use the mech's circular sword to blow hot air from the fire onto Zane and melt him free!

3 Zombies don't need to eat but that doesn't mean you can't give him a bellyfull of whacks with chicken wings, sausages and a big, bad baguette!

Mystery Egg

As the Ninja of Ice, Zane has spent a lot of time around penguins and loves their company. So you can imagine his surprise when out fishing in his mech, he meets a penguin who fires lasers from his eyes at him!!! Can you help Zane think fast to defeat Cobra Mechnic's remote controlled penguin before he is blasted to bits?

Use these extra pieces – or any others from the book – to finish the story your way!

1 Dangle a fish on a rod and lead the penguin away from danger

2 Throw the fish in the penguin's path and distract him with yummy food while you put a pot over its head

3 Tell the penguin you're sure he'd rather eat than fight. Put the fish in the bowl and use the penguins lasers to boil up a lovely fish dinner for two!

Shark Attack

Cobra Mechanic's trained vulture is swooping into the dojo courtyard and stealing Zane's mech piece by piece. With both arms already gone, Zane has to think quick. But is it better to build something new onto the mech, or find a way to stop the vulture – you decide?

Use these extra pieces – or any others from the book – to finish the story your way!

1 Use your flagstick as a catapult and shoot a web up in the air to bring the vulture back down to earth.

2 Rebuild your arms out of your leg armour and flag pieces and then catch the vulture in mid-flight.

3 Make friends with the vulture and re-train him to bring back the mech's arms in return for some tasty fish.

Dinner Party

When the Cobra mechanic attacks the dojo and fires his 'Bring to Life' ray at a training doll, Zane has to think quick as the wild wooden foe advances. Facing three spinning katanas, how can you help Zane to stop the training doll from slicing his mech into little metal pieces?

Use these extra pieces – or any others from the book – to finish the story your way!

1 Use your circular sword to blow back the training doll into the fire. Ash-tastic!

2 Use your sword and saw attachment to turn the training doll into chop suey!

3 Take the Cobra's 'Bring to Life' ray and shoot the doll's katanas, so they attack their owner and turn him into firewood!
