Layla, I can't believe Heartlake city
donated an ATV
to us.

Showing those
pictures of baby
turtles to the
mayor really
worked.

Look, they
even put my
Turtle Aid
logo on the front.

The logo goes
nicely with our
Junior Pet Vet
T-shirts.

The dog paw is also
a heart, and I put a
heart beat in
the middle.

Layla, your life jacket is covering the Pet Vet shirt.

Don't worry Emma. I didn't wear our club shirt.

I wore a swim suit instead so we can go surfing!

Look the city gave us a new surf board too!

Layla, we are supposed to save turtles.

I'll race you Emma.
With this surf board
I am sure I will find the baby turtles first!

No fair!
We are supposed
to use the ATV.

The race is on.
This turtle vehicle
is going to win.

Surfs up!
This wave is
going to launch
me.

Looks like
I am by myself
now.

Oh look,
baby turtles
are near by.

Surfing Layla
to the rescue!

Say good
by Mr. Crab.

That crab opened
a wound on Turbo.
We need to treat
it so it won't
get infected.

Here is
some medicine
from the ATV
Turbo.

I know the
medicine is yucky.
But now you
are safe.

And here is
some yummy
milk.

Layla, turtles
are reptiles
so they don't
drink milk.

Turbo does
look really
hungry though.

I gave it
to Mr. Crab.
Why?

Surfing Crab
Attack!

We need to get Turbo
out of here

Get into
the ATV
Turbo.

Slow
down
Turbo.

Watch
out for that
giant ice cream
cone.

Turbo might want some.

Turbo must have stole the ATV because he wanted your ice cream!

Momma Turtle
coming in!

Does Momma
like ice cream too?

Turbo hopped
out of his shell
to eat with
his mom!

Goodbye Turbo.
We love you!
